GOPHER BUREAU LIVESTOCK PLAN BEING OPPOSED

Equity Cooperative Members Object to Farm Bureau Commission Organization

GROWERS FIND OPPOSITION

Refusal of Permission to Sell Stock Brings New Problem to United Grain Growers

The Minnesota Farm Bureau has begun attempts to create a new livestock commission firm and to enlist North Dakota stockmen in the new society, according to announcement in Fargo. The new organization is known as the Minnesota Central Livestock Commission, an organization said to have been formed under the auspices of the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation. It has sent organizers into the state and is seeking to sign members at a membership fee of $25 and to sell stock at $25 per share, according to the Fargo announcement.

The effort has aroused the management of the Equity society, which operates the Equity Exchange with headquarters in St. Paul. The Minnesota Farm Bureau is said to have had difficulties with the Equity Society in developing its marketing program, and Equity officials now assert that the creation of another co-operative commission firm can only result in a split in the co-operative exchange business.

Grain Growers Active.

The organization work of the United Grain Growers Inc., the co-operative marketing plan of the American Farm Bureau, is proceeding in North Dakota under the leadership of U. L. Burdick. Claims are made that the Grain Growers have succeeded better in North Dakota than in any other state. However, the Wheat Growers organization, under George Duis, of Grand Forks, has not let down in its opposition to the Grain Growers plan in North Dakota. There appears no prospect of the fight between the two organizations abating.

The Grain Growers national organization is having difficulty in launching its Farmers Finance Corporation, evolved to meet financing problems of the wheat pool plan. Several states have refused permission to the corporation to sell stock. Last week the Blue Sky commission of North Dakota, on a divided vote, granted permision to the organization to sell $100,000 worth of stock. The Minnesota Securities commission refused to grant permission to operate in Minnesota.

View of N. D. Board.

The main objection raised to the corporation, which is a $100,000,000 corporation, is that it provides that all the power of the corporation shall be lodged in 21 holders of common stock, of no par value, while holders of $100,000,000 worth of preferred stock would have no voice in the organization. The North Dakota board majority held that concentration of power in such an organization is necessary to its success.

An account of the action of the Minnesota securities commission in refusing to permit the sale of $750,000 preferred stock, follows:

The Minnesota Farm Bureau federation has known for several weeks that operation of the Farmers Finance corporation on a national scale was virtually impossible and active steps already are being taken to provide suitable agricultural credit facilities for Minnesota farmers by means of a state co-operative finance corporation. L. E. Potter, president of the state federation said today.

Farm Bureau Action Promised.

"The plan worked out by the committee of 17 is absolutely sound," said Mr Potter. The Farm Bureau Federation financed the investigation of the committee of 17 and is determined that the national grain marketing plan drawn up by the committee shall be put into effect in the grain producing states on a sound, practical basis at the first possible moment.

The Farm Bureau federation does not intend to ask the farmers of the state to invest their money in any co-operative marketing project until every detail is worked out so that the plan as a whole shall have a fair chance of success.

"To provide necessary credit for the marketing of farm products in Minnesota, the state farm bureau federation has organized a joint committee of bankers and farmers. This committee will meet in St. Paul Friday to consider the establishment of a co-operative farm credit corporation under existing Minnesota law. The farm bureau federations of several other grain producing states are taking similar action.

"The United States Grain Growers, Incorporated, is a business organization, established by the various farmers' organizations interested in grain marketing. If for any reason it is found impossible to put the United States Grain Growers, Incorporated into successful operation, the state and national farm bureau federations will take whatever steps are necessary to provide a co-operative marketing system for grain producers, similar to the marketing organizations already provided through the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation for livestock and dairy products."

Causes of Ruling Given.

Evidence before the commission at the hearing Aug. 10 showed that the Farmers Finance corporation had issued its 21 shares of no par value stock to the United States Grain Growers, Incorporated and had sold 127 shares of preferred stock for cash realizing a total of $1[illegible]. F. E.

REV. G. H. QUIGLEY LEAVES METHODIST CHURCH FOR PASTORATE IN OREGON

Resignation is Announced Today By Pastor, Who Goes To La Grande, Oregon

ACTIVE IN CIVIC WORK

Rev. G. H. Quigley pastor of the McCabe Methodist Episcopal church and well known in Methodist circles in North Dakota, has accepted a pastorate in La Grande, Oregon. Rev. Quigley and his family will leave Bismarck about Sept. 20 for their new home.

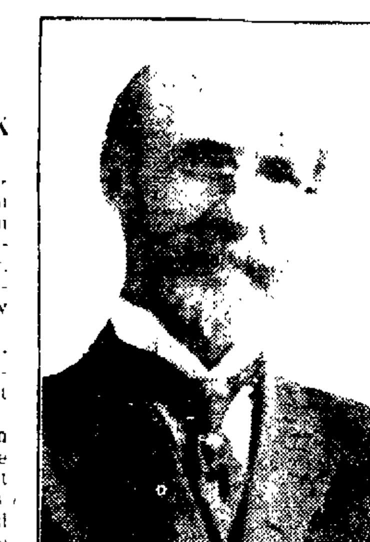

A successor to Rev. Quigley probably will not be chosen until the meeting of the Methodist conference at Valley City on October 7.

Rev. Quigley has been active in Methodism in North Dakota for twelve years, and has occupied the pulpit of the McCabe church for two years. Following pastorates at Drayton and Cando he was superintendent of the Grand Forks district of the church for six years, coming to Bismarck two years ago from that city. One of the reasons prompting Dr. Quigley to accept the Oregon pastorate is his desire to seek a milder climate.

La Grande, Oregon, is situated in the northeast part of the state, in the Grande-Ronde valley, a fruit growing and lumbering country, on the slope of the Blue Mountains. The population of the city is about 10,000. Rev. Quigley will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist Episcopal church, the largest church in that district.

Rev. Quigley, Mrs. Quigley and their daughter, Ruth, who has been very active in musical and church circles will be missed by a host of Bismarck friends, and it was with regret that the officials of the church learned of Rev. Quigley's intention to leave.

METHODISTS IN WORLD SESSION HOPE FOR PEACE

Messages Are Sent To King Of England and To President Harding

London, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Greetings to President Harding and King George, voicing a hope for world's peace were sent today by the world's conference of Methodists in session here. In the address to the king the conference said:

"Especially is this world's conference united with your majesty in your earnest desire that the effort now making for peace and contentment in Ireland may meet with early and complete success."

The message to President Harding thankfully recalled President Harding's inaugural address in which he declared that America was eager to initiate a program to lessen the probability of war and promote the brotherhood of mankind. The message said that Methodists everywhere would regard with prayerful attention the practical proposals since made by the American government to Great Britain and other nations to secure peace without recourse to war.

Methodist churches have always striven "to translate the teachings of Christian truth into the practical activities of every day light" and with this end in view it deemed it the duty of the church to assist the administrators of just laws to restore to its old place of influence the authority of the Christian family and the home.

OLD BONDS TO BE EXCHANGED

Industrial Commission to Replace 5 Percents

The Industrial Commission is preparing to issue to purchasers of 5 per cent mill and elevator bonds, new bonds bearing 6 per cent interest. The old bonds are being called in.

The action is to be taken because the mill and elevator bonds which the Industrial Commission is now offering for sale are being issued at 6 per cent.

When the Industrial Commission embarked on its first bond selling campaign to obtain money to build mills and elevators it executed a mortgage on the Drake mill and property to be acquired in the future for $5,000,000. A total of $120,300 bonds at 5 per cent were executed and delivered. About $25,100 worth of bonds were sold at Drake and about $95,200 additional at Grand Forks and other places. A new mortgage, including the Grand Forks elevator, is to be filed.

ORDERS PROBE IN MINE STRIKE

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 8.—Governor Len Small ordered an investigation of conditions in Harding county in connection with the miners' strike there.

MINISTER'S BOND IS MADE $10,000

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 8.—Bond in the sum of $10,000 was today fixed by Judge R. V. Evans in circuit court in the case of Rev. E. R. Stephenson indicted yesterday by the Jefferson county grand jury on a charge of second degree murder in connection with the slaying of Father James Coyle Catholic priest on Aug. 11.

VETS CLEAN-UP SQUAD TO VISIT BISMARCK OCT. 3

Will Endeavor to Settle Claims of Every ex-Service Man on Trip

AT OTHER SLOPE POINTS

A squad of government officers sent out by the new, consolidated Veteran's Bureau will visit Bismarck on Oct. 3 and 4 in a clean-up campaign for the following purposes:

Securing information on disabled veterans whereby every ex-service man and woman may be apprised of their rights under the War Risk Insurance Act.

To assist disabled ex-service persons in securing compensation, medical treatment and hospital care.

To inform and assist all claimants regarding the procedure necessary in filing a claim for compensation and insurance.

To assist those whose claims are pending in securing final action where additional evidence is necessary to connect their disability with the service, or other data required by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

To provide for immediate physical examination where necessary and promptly furnish hospitalization for urgent cases.

Veterans from the counties of Dunn, McLean, Mercer, Oliver, Morton, Burleigh, Emmons, Logan and McIntosh are invited to appear before the board in Bismarck on Oct. 3 and 4.

Visit 13 Points.

Thirteen points in the state will be visited. The clean-up squad will be in Mott on Sept. 26-27 to meet ex-service men from Sioux, Grant and Hettinger counties, in Bowman, Sept. 28-29, to meet men from Adams, Bowman, Slope; in Dickinson Sept. 30-Oct. 1, to meet ex-service men from Stark, Billings and Golden Valley counties.

L. M. Mitchell, field representative of the Red Cross of Chicago, was in Bismarck today. Mr Mitchell is making arrangements for the visit of the clean-up squad in North Dakota.

Have Special Staffs.

"I have been with the clean-up squads in Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois, and I feel that this clean-up squad coming to Bismarck can offer a real service to any ex-service man who has a disability or a claim for compensation which has not been satisfactorily adjusted," said Mr. Mitchell. "There is a special staff of trained workers in the Minneapolis office detailed to handle the claims coming in from the clean-up squad. The same thing is true in the Washington office and in Iowa, Wisconsin and Nebraska definite ratings are being returned one week after the man's appearance before the clean-up squad.

"I should urge every man to make arrangements to appear before the squad on the first day of its stay in Bismarck."

Any ex-service man desiring further information can be informed through the county Red Cross chapter or his American Legion post, Mr. Mitchell said.

NO REPORTS OF STATE SCHOOLS NOT OPENING

No reports of schools failing to open in the state have been received at the office of the state superintendent. The county superintendent of Slope county, from which reports came recently that some schools would not open, has written to the state department that the same number of schools will open this year that were open last year.

There is a surplus of teachers available this year. An especially well qualified corps of teachers has been obtained in the state, according to reports to the state superintendent's office. There is no need in any district using "permit teachers" this year, according to State Superintendent Nielson.

"We have reports [illegible] where [illegible] students are not able to [illegible] teachers [illegible] [illegible] in which the [illegible] [illegible] warrants and [illegible] the utmost," said Miss Nielson. They are [illegible] of service and [illegible] many communities.

PHONE CHARGES TO BE BOOSTED BY COURT ORDER

Federal Court in Fargo Today Sets Aside Railroad Commission Order

BISMARCK IS AFFECTED

Phone Rates in This and Other Cities Would be Increased Under Company Petition

Fargo, Sept. 8.—A decision in United States district court today enjoins the state railroad commission from enforcing its order of August, 1920, refusing the Northwestern Bell and North Dakota Independent Telephone companies an average increase of 20 per cent in toll and exchange rates.

Judge Kimbrough Stone, of the U. S. circuit court of appeals, and Federal Judges Amidon and J. W. Wooddrough participated in the decision.

Telephone rates in Bismarck, Mandan and in a large number of cities and towns served by the North Dakota Independent Telephone company and the Northwestern Telephone Exchange will be increased on Oct. 1, as a result of a decision of the United States district court in Fargo today, according to belief of officials connected with the railroad commission.

The railroad commission had denied the general increase in toll and exchange rates. The telephone companies held that the present rates are confiscatory and appealed. The railroad commission order is set aside.

The Northwestern company operates over 70 exchanges and the North Dakota Independent 36 exchanges.

In addition to the increases, averaging about 20 per cent the telephone companies asked for a reclassification of farm lines, with a higher rate for metallic than for grounded lines.

A message to the railroad commission said that the injunction was granted on condition that the Northwestern Exchange give bond of $100,000 and the North Dakota Independent give bond of $25,000.

URGES FARMERS TO REPAY U. S.

Seed Loans Payable Oct. 1, M. O. Halls Says

M. O. Hall, of Mohall, was in Bismarck today, after having completed three months work in Fargo assisting in the direction of federal seed loans in the state.

About $800,000 was loaned farmers to aid in purchase of seed, Mr. Hall said. Under the terms of the loan the amounts are to be paid back October 1. Payments may be made through any bank, Mr. Hall said, urging farmers who obtained seed loan money to promptly reimburse the government.

Mr. Hall believes that the loan of seed money in the Northwest greatly stimulated production this year. Mr. Hall after getting an indorsement from the legislature on the proposition went to Washington to work for the $2,000,000 bill. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in a letter, thanked Mr. Hall for his efforts in promoting the seed loan bill.

HITS U. S. DELAY ON MANDATES IN LEAGUE MEETING

Lord Cecil, South African Representative, Criticises U. S. Position

ARGENTINA DISSATISFIED

Foreign Minister Says That "Undemocratic" Form of League Kills It

Geneva, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Charges that the "purely negative" position of the United States has been responsible for the delay in the application of mandates by the League of Nations were made by Lord Robert Cecil, representative of South Africa, at today's session of the assembly of the league which took up a general discussion of the accomplishments of that body to date.

A flurry of interest spread over the audience as the South African delegate rose and announced he wished to speak on mandates. Lord Cecil reviewed the whole mandate question, during which he took occasion not only to criticize the policy of the United States but also the lack of publicity permitted by the recent meeting of the council of the league.

Complains of Delay.

Regarding the note recently sent by the United States Department of State he said that international affairs would have been better advanced had it been started earlier.

"These territories," he said, referring to the countries over which mandates were provided by the covenant of the leagues "must no longer be left in the present situation deprived of a definite status or a definite government."

He said he did not want to appear to criticize the United States "but the mandates should be settled in the interest of the people directly entrusted with them and without further delay."

Republics May Withdraw.

Buenos Aires Sept. 8.—Rejection by the assembly of the League of Nations of amendments to the covenant of the league proposed by Argentina may be followed by the withdrawal from the league of certain American republics, it is learned here in reliable sources. Belief is expressed that Chile will be among them. Argentina withdrew from the first assembly when her amendments were not accepted.

The committee on amendments rejected the one proposed by Argentina providing that all sovereign states should be members of the league unless they voluntarily abstained from membership. Foreign Minister Pueyrredon last night said this action by the committee undoubtedly meant rejection of that amendment by the assembly and that such action would result in the absolute and permanent separations of Argentina from the league.

Says League Is Dead.

Signor Pueyrredon said the league "was dead," explaining he did not believe it could survive "under the present undemocratic system of organization in which there is an equality of duty but not an equality of power."

"This distinction is not conducive to harmony and co-operation among the members," He continued. "The possibility of a new world association of nations growing out of the Washington conference depends on the United States. That country holds the key to the situation."

"While the interests of the mandate peoples," Lord Cecil continued, "are safeguarded by the covenant they are not yet so safe-guarded by the league organization."

The mandate, he added, must not be "camouflage."

Latest Note Opens Way For Continuance of Negotiations With De Valera

NOTE IS SENT IRISH

Would Reconcile Association with Empire and Irish National Aspirations

Inverness, Scotland, (By the Associated Press).—Official confirmation that the British cabinet's reply to the latest note of Eamonn DeValera, the Irish leader, which was dispatched to Dublin last evening invites representatives of the Sinn Fein to a further conference was given here today.

The cabinet asked Mr. DeValera for a definite reply as to whether he was prepared to enter a conference to ascertain how the association of Ireland and the British empire can best be reconciled with the Irish national aspirations. It was suggested that the conference will be held in Inverness Sept. 20.

The British reply written by Prime Minister Lloyd George, says:

"Government by consent of the governed is the basis of the British constitution but we cannot accept as the basis of a practical conference any interpretation thereof which would commit us to any demands you might present even to that of a Republic."

Mr. Lloyd George says he cannot believe a refusal to enter into the conference would mean repudiation of allegiance to the Crown and that if Mr. DeValera's real objection is fear that the British proposals offer less than liberty to Ireland that matter can be discussed in the conference if held.

TRAIN WRECKED AFTER STRIKE; ENGINEER DEAD

Protection of Troops to be Asked of Governor of Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 8.—Military protection for employes and property of the Atlanta-Birmingham and Atlantic railroad will be asked of Governor Hardwick as a result of numerous cases of dynamiting of the road's freight trains, it was stated today, by Col. B. L. Bugg, receiver, for the road, following the wreck of a freight on the out skirts of Atlanta last night in which the engineer was killed and several negro trainmen injured.

John E. Morris, the engineer, who was killed, was the first person to lose his life as a result of various wrecks but a number of employes have suffered injuries and an engineer died last week as a result of a shooting affray. The acts have followed a strike on the road last spring which resulted in union employes who fought a decrease in wages being replaced by non-union workers.

SOVIET REFUSES INVESTIGATION BY RELIEF BODY

Calls Naming of Frenchman, Chairman, a "Monstrous Jest" at Starving

Moscow, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Rusian Soviet government has declined to permit the International Relief Commission recently appointed by the allied supreme council to investigate conditions in Russia preparatory to aiding in famine relief.

This decision was made known today through a note forwarded by M. Tchitcherin, the Soviet foreign minister to England, Italy, France and Belgium. The note says the Soviet government regards the appointment of Joseph Noulens, of France, as chairman, as a "monstrous jest at the fate of the starving Russians."

The note recalls activities of M. Noulens against the Soviet government when he was serving as French ambassador at Petrograd and dismisses the entire proposal of the supreme council as unthinkable and designed to give Russia's enemies opportunities of spying into its affairs. It emphasizes the willingness of Russia to accept aid for its famine-striken population from the individual powers on such terms as those governing the work of the American Relief Administration and that of the International Red Cross.

NO. DAKOTA HONORED BY AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION IN APPOINTMENTS

Judge S. E. Ellsworth of Jamestown Lee Combs of Valley City Dean Hugh E. Willis of Grand Forks, Benton Baker and Judge H. A. Bronson of Bismarck attended the meeting of the American Bar Association which concluded its meeting at Cincinnati, Ohio, Saturday last.

William H. Taft chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, Elihu Root, Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general of the United States, James M. Beck, solicitor general; John W. Davis, former ambassador to England, Rt. Hon. Sir John Simon, former attorney general of England, were among the prominent notables who addressed the association.

Elihu Root and Chief Justice Taft lead a successful fight for the adoption of a resolution by the association requiring an educational qualification of at least two years college work before a prospective lawyer may seek admission to the bar.

The convention of Bar Associations, held at Cincinnati, gave high recognition to the State Bar Association of North Dakota through its reports and proceedings because it has become the first State Bar Association in the United States to become incorporated and recognized by legislative act as a body politic and to contain and represent in its membership 100 per cent of the practicing lawyers of the state. This was recognized as a distinct step in advance following recommendations made the convention. Judge S. E. Ellsworth of Jamestown, Lee Combs of Valley City, and Judge H. A. Bronson of Bismarck, were delegates at the convention from the North Dakota State Bar Association, Judge Bronson making the report for the North Dakota bar. Benton Baker of Bismarck represented the Burleigh County Bar Association. North Dakota was honored by the selection of Judge Ellsworth as a member of the executive committee of the American Bar Association. This committee consists of eight appointees in addition to certain officers of the association.

On General Council.

Lee Combs was chosen as a member of the general council. Judge C. J. Fisk of Minot, as vice president for North Dakota, John E. Greene, of Minot, Judge C. A. Pollock of Fargo E. E. Flynn, of Devils Lake, and Benton Baker, of Bismarck, as members of the local council.

The commissioners on Uniform State Laws met just preceding and during the convention. The negotiable instruments act, prepared by these commissioners, is now in force in nearly every state in the union. The uniform acts on warehouse receipts, bills of lading, acknowledgements, and conditional sales are now in force in a great number of states.

The commissioners considered tentative drafts and suggestions concerning a uniform act on incorporation, a uniform act on declaratory judgments, a uniform act on illegitimate children, a uniform act on fiducaries, a uniform act on aviation, and also amendments suggested to the uniform acts on warehouse receipts and conditional sales. Forty-one states were represented by commissioners in attendance at the meeting. Dean Hugh E. Willis of Grand Forks, and Judge H. A. Bronson of Bismarck were commissioners in attendance from North Dakota.

PLAY DOMINOES FOR 28 YEARS

Riverhead, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Four men in this town have been playing dominoes every day for 28 years and they say it will take at least ten more years to determine which pair of them excels in the game.

George W. Cooper, who is 91 years old and never felt more chipper, is the senior of the quartet. He always opposes Zophar M. Woodhull, 84 years old. They select their partners from two comparative youngsters, Howard Sanford 72, and Elsworth Benjamin, 69.

Mr. Cooper used to be a bank president and the grey-haired group gathered in his office for their game every afternoon, but business began to interfere with dominoes, so he gave up banking about ten years ago. Since then the game has gone on in the office of a mill and Mr. Cooper, who also was once a farmer and the country sheriff, takes a little time off now and then to attend the directors' meeting at the bank.

Sometimes when the younger domino warriors pause and argue, he says "Come on, no stalling in this game. We haven't many more years to play."

DISTANCES IN CARUSO THROAT ARE COMPARED

London, Sept. 7. — Dr. William Lloyd, throat specialist, who for many years treated Caruso, writes to the Daily Mail that, comparing him with other great singers, he found the following characteristics of the perfect singing machine.

"The most striking feature was the great length of the vocal tube; the distance from the teeth to the vocal cords, in Caruso was at least half an inch more than in any other great tenor I have examined.

"A second point was the length of the vocal cords, on whose length, breadth and thickness the pitch of the voice largely depends. The average length of the relaxed vocal cords in a man is 18 millimeters (about 3-4 in.). Caruso's vocal cords were 1-6 in. longer than those of any other tenor I have seen.

"The capacity for vibration of the vocal cords is another most important factor, for the higher the note the more rapid must be the vibration. Caruso when singing his wonderful chest C sharp reached the phenomenal vibration for a man, of 540 per second.

"Caruso's whole body seemed to have more average resonance and one of the great secrets of his wonderful voice was the formation of the epiglottis, which was thick at the base, as in basses, but exquisitely fine and delicate at the free end. The power of his voice was so great that he often fractured glasses in my consulting room by singing their fundamental notes at the orifice."

WONT INTERVENE TO HAVE PROFITS LAW CHANGED

Mexico City, Sept. 7.—The federal government will not intervene in an effort to have the Vera Cruz legislature modify its law recently passed permitting workmen to share in the profits of any industry within the state. Secretary of the Interior Calles has made a statement to this effect.

Secretary Calles says that in such matters the state are sovereign, adding however that the law is not as drastic as described by its opponents.

Although there is no apparent hope that the law will be repealed representative of various industries affected have told The Associated Press that they understand I do attempt will be made to carry out the measure in a strict form. They are prepared however, to close down all their interests in the state of Vera Cruz if the profit-sharing law is invoked by the workmen. It is believed the Supreme Court will be called upon to pass on the law.

Effects of the law have already been felt in other parts of the republic. In the Laguna Cotton region manufacturers have refused to buy any of the crop on hand in view of the possibility of the Durango legislature passing a similar law.

I WAS A NERVOUS BANKRUPT WEAK, WORN AND "ALL IN"

I was too weak to work; too nervous to think and my business was going to ruin.

Until I was a complete physical and mental wreck with financial ruin staring me in the face, I never realized that the system manufactured only so much nerve force every twenty-four hours, and that if through worry, overwork, excitement, grief, or constant nervous strain, or other excesses, you used up your nerve force faster than it was made, that in time you were bound to become a nervous bankrupt, just like a man who continually spends more money than he makes is bound, in time, to become a financial bankrupt.

I knew I was fast losing my old time strength and endurance and that I was getting extremely nervous, but I did not attach much importance to it until one day I found that I was suffering terrible tortures from an awful devitalizing weakness that put my nerves all on edge. The slightest thing completely upset me. I had a dull heavy aching pain in the lower back part of my head, and sometimes a very disagreeable sense of fulness in the front and top of my head. I could not sleep well at night. A continuous round of thoughts would chase one another through my brain. I would often find myself in a state of profuse perspiration, which was very weakening. Sometimes I suffered from heart palpitation and indigestion. I would often wake up in the middle of the night with a horrible nightmare, and think I was chained to my bed. Finally my pains, aches, and extreme nervousness and weakness became so alarming I was afraid I was going to die, and I often thought of committing suicide.

The above is a hypothetical case, which a physician says is typical of thousands. It is alarming to think how very few people really have strong nerves nowadays, and how many hundreds of thousands suffer from exhaustion of the nerve-vital fluid. Their nerve cells are very much like the cells of a storage battery in an electric car, in which the electricity has run so low that the car can hardly move. In such cases, unless they do something quickly to increase the supply of nerve-vital fluid so as to furnish increased power to the nerves, they are likely to go all to pieces at any moment and suffer indescribable tortures. Most remarkable results are usually obtained by these unfortunate sufferers from the free administration of Nuxated Iron—two tablets three times a day after meals. This valuable product contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the nerve and brain cells of man.

It also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. This form of iron will not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It is an entirely different thing from metallic iron which people usually take. Nuxated Iron may therefore be termed both a blood and a nerve food, as it feeds strength-giving iron to your blood and the principal chemical ingredient of active, living nerve force to your brain and nerve cells.

Over four million people are using Nuxated Iron annually, and from the remarkably beneficial results which it has produced, the manufacturers feel so certain of its efficacy that they guarantee satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. Beware of substitutes, look for the word "Nuxated" on every package.

After using Nuxated Iron we shall be pleased to have you write us what it does for you, for publication. Your name will be withheld.

Nuxated Iron for the blood and nerves is sold by all druggists.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Mohall, N. D., Sept. 7.—Orson Dodge, 48, a farm laborer, is to face trial for a murder committed in 1911 in Wisconsin because he became intoxicated and talked too much.

About a year ago Dodge made confidential friends of other men who were with him when he became intoxicated. He told them he had murdered a woman at Headquarters near Iron River, Wis. The murder occurred at a lumber camp and jealousy was the motive of the crime. The men who were with Dodge notified the sheriff who immediately wired to Wisconsin for the information but before the report on the crime was received, Dodge left these parts.

Sentiment in Business.

The old saying that "Business is Business" gets a jolt once in a while when some big business firm stirs a little sentiment into the mixture. Recently a big chewing gum firm put a new brand on the market and called it Wrigley's P-Ks. There have been many guesses as to the meaning of the name. Some have said that it was the initials of the slogan "Packed tight—Kept right," but really it's just a little matter of sentiment. P. K are the initials of Philip K. the son of the founder of the business, Wm Wrigley, Jr. P. K. is now in the business as one of the vice presidents

SAFER IN BATTLE

Autos kill 12,000 Americans a year and injure 1,500,000, says the Insurance Press. That makes your chances of being killed by a motorcar 1 in 8750 It's 1 to 70 that you'll be run down and injured

Most of these accidents occur in crowded cities Two causes—carelessness and congestion.

Carelessness can be lessened—but not ended

To relieve congestion and make motoring fool-proof, future cities will have to provide subways or overhead roads for autos. The ground-level street will belong to pedestrians.

INSURANCE

Heirs of Wallace L. Pierce, Boston grocer, are paid $535,000 insurance—the largest death claim in a year.

How much cash is a human life worth? Generally it depends on how much you bet the insurance company that you'll die before it thinks you will.

Most men don't leave much else except a first mortgage on the house.

Protect your family. Carry insurance—greatest system so far devised by man for saving money

THIEF

We are all criminals at heart, says Andre Tridon, New York psychologist. He thinks repression of natural criminal instincts is all that keeps most folks out of jail.

That isn't true.

The instinct of animals is to hunt their own food, not steal what some other animal has caught. Except when starving (hard times in the animal world), animals do not try to take what another animal has caught.

It is man's criminal instinct that is unnatural.

YOUR FORTUNE

Charlie Chaplin, with his mustache shaved off, is on his way to his old home town, London, England, after an absence of nine years.

He will, doubtless, visit the music halls where his father and mother in years long past were poorly-paid performers. In particular, he will seek out the tiny theater where Charlie, age four, made his first appearance, singing the coster ballad, "Jack Jones"

At eight years, he played minor parts in the musical show, "The Yorkshire Lads," and the masterpiece, "From Rags to Riches."

From rags to riches!

That is the story of Chaplin's life.

Yes, you say, but it was genius that put him at the top.

Not altogether Hard work was equally responsible For Charlie Chaplin can remember when his boyhood home was an English workhouse — poorhouse, as we call it. Now, 33 years old, his fortune is somewhere in the millions.

That's a big gap. Genius couldn't bridge it alone. For even a genius finds it a job to get out of the poorhouse level.

Does it require genius to make a million? No.

But it does require something exceptional. For instance, exceptional pleasantness

The other day, in New York, James W. Hebron was buried. His first job was in 1877, as doorman at Delmonico's at $1 a day "Jimmy" was so pleasant, so obliging, so eager to help every one, that tips flowed in fast

Then Delmonico's rich customers began giving Jimmy real tips — tips on the stock market, on sound investments.

At his death, the former doorman was a millionaire.

It pays to be pleasant.

There is no absolute formula for success.

The thing that will make one man rich might fail another man

Henry Ford used a bicycle-repair shop as the starting-place of his great industry Others, who had bicycle repair shops, never got out of them

Genius and hard work made Charlie Chaplin rich

Pleasantness brought a million to "Jimmy" Hebron

Other men build fortunes on thrift, inventions or a simple idea for performing a much-needed service

In [illegible] some quality, some power some ability that can be used as a vehicle to financial independence

Study yourself Analyze Find that power What can you do best? What do you like to do best? What are you best fitted for? Therein is your fortune

"YE ED"

In Honolulu, Oct 11 to 25, newspaper editors and publishers will hold an international press congress of the world

A stone's throw from the meeting place, the first printing press west of the Rocky Mountains was set up, 100 years ago

Boston editors will boast at the meeting, that their town printed America's first newspaper — the Boston News Letter, first issue of which appeared April 24, 1704.

English editors will speak up, boasting that London had a newspaper, the English Mercurie, as far back as 1588

Then some Italian editor will clear his throat and remind the crowd that Italy gave the world its first newspaper—the Gazetta, of Venice. Hence, the newspaper name, Gazette.

Maybe a Chinese editor will confide that he once worked on the Pekin Tsing Pao, world's oldest newspaper, which expired in 1915, after 1400 years of continuous publication.

The Chinese editor might also tell the meeting about a similar press congress in China 4100 years ago.

China even then had what corresponded to editors—men who kept records in hand-lettered writing.

Emperor Yu the Great called a press congress of all who could write, and had them bring all their writings. Every editor left the convention hall feet-first, with his head chopped off.

"Now," said Yu the Great, with a chuckle, "I've killed all the writing men and burned everything they ever wrote. With no records left folks will think I built the earth."

Years later, sewed in the thatched roof of a Chinese house, a set of the ancient Bamboo Books was discovered. From these was pieced out China's history prior to Yu. They'd been hidden by a Chinese country editor who didn't believe in taking chances.

It is strategically opportune that the press congress of the world is to be held on the eve of the disarmament conference.

Also, that it is to be held in the Pacific, which now is the focus and center of the currents of war or peace.

Japanese and American editors, mingling with each other and with editors from all over the world, have a great responsibility in the shaping of thought. They disseminate the news-facts that make public opinion.

These editors will get together and hear one another's problems—personal, national and racial. With proper understanding established, a good start will have been made for limitation of the world's armaments.

COUNTERFEITERS

Counterfeiters are increasing their activities as the growing buying power of the dollar makes the profit greater.

A clever sample is a counterfeit $50 note on the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. It looks like the real thing, being printed on two sheets of paper, pasted together, with strands of colored silk thread between

But the back of the note is blue instead of green.

A crook always overlooks a bet.

CONSUMERS

Delegates representing 24,000,000 families all over the world attend the International Cooperative League Congress in Switzerland.

The size of this organization shows that consumers daily are really getting somewhere in their banding together for lower prices

The middleman's days are not yet numbered. But he isn't going to have his own way forever.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day

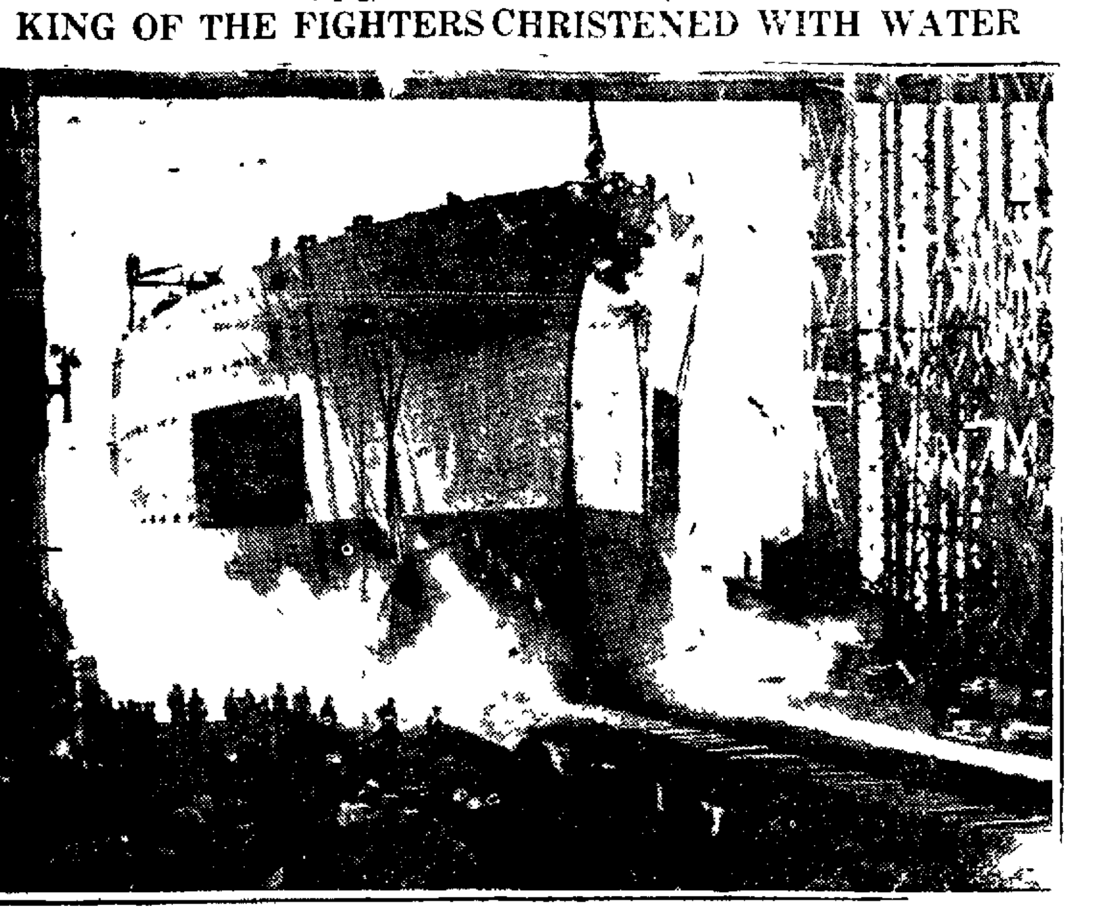

THE HARDING METHOD

It has been more than obvious to the man in the street that the White House under the present management has a way of doing things and of getting things done that is refreshing and agreeable to the majority of our people. Senator Borah went down to the White House and had a chat with the president upon pretty serious matters, ranging from secret diplomacy to troop withdrawal and the Panama canal tolls Somehow it was not alone the subjects discussed, but the method of procedure that invited attention.

We do not hear so much these days about bitter-enders and irreconcilables The wind from the White House windows has by some means been tempered; it is not so fierce. Nobody is so easily enraged Team work has come into play and usage Not only with Senator Borah, but with other independent senators, the president has shown and exhibited a persistent disposition to keep on good terms

What all this means and implies in practice is that the wheels of government are being oiled with good will President Harding walks more than half way down the carpet to meet opponents To put folks at their ease instead of on edge is a large part of the secret of getting things done — Philadelphia Bulletin

"Three Programs" is the title of a long, labored editorial in the Grand Forks Herald The writer is skating on thin ice when he tries to differentiate between the I V A program of state ownership and the Townley regime of socialism He manages how ever, to point out a distinction without a difference

There can and should be only two programs in the state State socialism and anti-state socialism These are the only two logical consistent programs, the socialistic and the anti socialistic

The Grand Forks Herald using a little political sophistry declares empirically that those who oppose socialism in any form are working toward the same end as the Townley Lemke organization How it arrives at this conclusion from its premise cannot be proven by any rule [illegible]

* * *

This Editorial The Tribune is reproducing because of its unique form of reasoning and also to show that it is interested in placing before the voters of the state the widest kind of discussion It is not hidebound by the publicity that emanates from I V A headquarters and it is as equally independent of the "dope" that issues forth from the League press agents

* * *

The editorial entitled The Three Programs," follows

"The voters of the state have their choice of three programs that che[illegible] to be exercised on election day in November It should be understood from the outset that the choice will be made on that day because on some date in November an election will be held at which all citizens will be given an opportunity to vote on the recall of three state officials and to pass on certain initiated measures which are then to be submitted The issues will be determined by those who go to the polls and vote and not by those who for any reason remain at home The opinion of the individual as to the desirability of holding the election will not affect the result The election will be held Votes will be cast And on the character of those votes the result will depend What are the three programs from which the choice is to be made?

* * *

"First, there is the Townley Lemke program of state socialism the program which has been evolved from the fantastic dreams of the doctrinaries for centuries back and which was adapted to the purposes of North Dakota by Mr Townley in the manner which he thought best calculated to promote his own ambitions That program is an exceedingly variable thing subject to additions and modifications from time to time as the necessities of its promoters may determine Beginning with a rather modest plan for a state owned terminal elevator it has expanded to include mills and packing plants bank stores and business enterprises of all kinds until the entire business and industrial activity of the state is socialized with control vested in the hands of the men who have wrecked banks shattered commercial establishment heaped taxes on taxes and sucked up the money of the people as a sponge sucks up water That program is now in operation A vote against the recall, and against the initiated laws will be a vote to continue it to continue the control of the state's affairs by the same persons who now mismanage them and by maintaining senseless and illogical party divisions in our state elections to make possible the perpetuation indefinitely of the conditions which have become so oppressive

Diametrically opposed to the Townley Lemke program is the reactionary program which is now being industriously advocated by the Bismarck Tribune Briefly stated the Tribune's position [illegible] is to be gained by the recall [illegible] the Independents are [illegible] their policies [illegible] agers that the regu[illegible] come in regular [illegible] next year that in the meantime [illegible] party enough to get together [illegible] program for the [illegible] program in which [illegible] any form shall have [illegible] in the meantime [illegible] left as they are The control of the state industries the disposition of its taxes [illegible] be left in the hands of the present administration until the rehabilitation of the Republican party shall be made complete when the state can revert to a sound and safe public policy

The third program is that of the Independents This program is not a socialistic or a public ownership program It recognizes certain existing facts One of these is that a state mill and elevator has not only been demanded by the people and provided for by the legislature but that work on such enterprises has actually been begun and carried well along toward completion The Independents propose to complete the buildings now started to operate the plant as contemplated in order that there may be a satisfactory demonstration of the possibilities of this plan This in substance is the limit of the public ownership proposals of the Independents They propose that the Bank of North Dakota as a commercial institution shall be liquidated and that its activities be confined to the farm loan business They propose that the departments of the state [illegible] of a financial or industrial character shall be placed on a sound business basis and conducted as business institutions rather than as political agencies They propose that the election laws of the state be amended in such manner that it will be possible at an election to decide questions pertaining to the affairs of North Dakota without dragging in the differences which may exist among citizens on question of national politics In other words they propose that state issues shall be decided on their own merits without the complication of national party politics

* * *

These three programs are to be presented and the people will choose one or the other of them If the first is chosen conditions in the state remain as they are and we understand pretty well what that means If the second is chosen it will make no difference There will be no change in the management of the business of the state at any rate until after an other election is held and that election must be held under the conditions which have permitted the stone with all the complications of party politics entering in Those who believe in the cleaning up of the state will be required to enter upon a campaign for that purpose with their hands tied by the miserable red tape of party politics For this reason the Townley-Lemke organization and the reactionary organization of which the Bismarck Tribune is the mouthpiece, are working toward the same end Accepting the views [illegible] will result in votes next fall against the recall of the three state officials and against each of the initiated measures for which petitions have been signed Naturally it will make no difference from what angle the voter approaches the subject, so long as he votes as desired The purposes of the radicals and the reactionaries in this respect are alike and it herein is given to the arguments of either the result will be entirely satisfactory to both There is but one way out and that is by supporting the Independent program and electing the independent candidates In that way men committed to business like policies in the administration of state affairs will be placed in office and laws will be enacted which will amply safeguard the interests of the people

* * *

Wednesday's Courier News gave an indication that when the recall petitions are filed Sept 1[illegible] there will be a thorough checking to find verifying [illegible] signatures

Letters are printed purporting to come from signers of I V A recall petitions who declared they were induced to do so by misrepresentation In the cases noted the names have been promptly withdrawn by the I V A. managers.

The letter printed is from Miss Lila M. Hanson LaMoure, N D Attached also is the reply of O L Engen, Fargo, treasurer of the joint campaign committee, in which he informs Miss Hanson that her name has been removed from the petitions

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

The Nuisance Fairies promised to be very good and very quiet and to stay downstairs while Nancy and Nick cleaned the second floor And they kept their word Even when Howly 'Th[illegible] something and winked at his best friends, Jumpy Lightning and Old Man Flood nodding his head it [illegible] toward the front door [illegible] so quietly

And when Jumpy Lightning and Old Man Flood saw what he meant, they bounced back quietly too This was what [illegible] saw The Twins had slammed the door but they had not locked [illegible] The way was clear for all the Nuisance Fairies to escape

Upstairs the Twins were as busy as Bumble [illegible] in the Fourth of [illegible] They [illegible] dusted and [illegible] made beds and [illegible] and soon had everything shining

"Something [illegible] to make a big surprise," said Nancy, surveying [illegible] work with pride "I think they deserve something nice for being so good [illegible] Nick Let's call them all up"

Nick was about to agree when a distant roaring reached their ears

A queer mixed rumbling sound The Twins rushed to the window and looked down to the earth, far, far below What a sight met their eyes! The Nuisance Fairies had escaped, every mother's son of them, and they were quarreling Old Man Flood had seized Dr Weather by the neck trying [illegible] while Jack Frost [illegible] one foot and laughed

[illegible] Jamey L[illegible] Mr Storm, and [illegible]

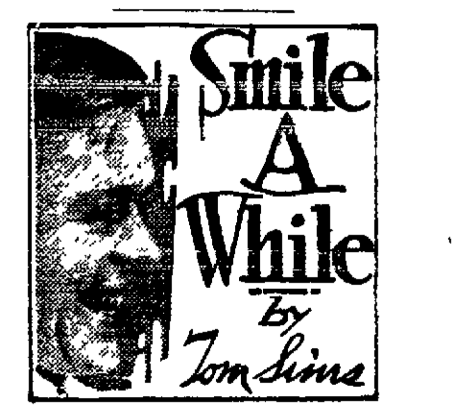

[illegible] cried

The [illegible] was Sprinkle [illegible] into their midst and doing all he could to stop her

"Quick!" said Nick "we must go down and help him

Mrs. Stoll Tells Women How She Found Relief From Pain

Philadelphia Pa — I suffered for six years [illegible] month had vomiting spells the first two days, and was unfit to do my work I read in your little book about Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took the medicine with satisfactory results I am a midwife and recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and my daughters take it. You may publish these facts as a testimonial —Mrs. Louisa [illegible] Phila. Pa.

It is not natural for women to suffer as did Mrs Stoll and in nine cases out of ten it is caused by some displacement or derangement of the system which Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes because it acts as a natural restorative

Every woman who is subject to cramps headaches nervous spells, backache or those dreadful bearing-down pains should profit by Mrs. Stoll's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and if there is any complication write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co, Lynn, Mass., about her health
